

WHO:

Parents/guardians and childcare providers

WHY:

To protect parents' pocket books, and keep us in compliance with the Michigan Privacy Act.

WHAT:

Due to frequent turnover with childcare providers, the library now only allows parents to authorize full-time childcare providers to check materials out on a parent's card with written authorization. A parent must come into the library to provide this authorization in writing, which is renewable every three months.