President's Report for 2013

- During 2013, The Friends were involved in a Directors' reception for the outgoing and incoming directors. This was coordinated with the library staff and library board.
- We worked with the Director and Stevie Brinkerhoff to select pictures of the old and new library to be displayed in the new Community Hall. The Friends paid for this project.
- The Friends served lemonade at the Community Hall, during the 4th of July open house.
- We worked with the Library Staff and Boy Scouts at the July used book sale that took place during the Art Fair.
- A continuous in library used book sale is sponsored by FORL
- Hold an annual meeting that is usually followed by a program that is open to the community. This year an antique appraisal will follow the annual meeting.

Election of Officers

The ballots were counted and the results are:

The Officers of the Friends of the Richland Library for 2014

President-- Dianne Woods

Vice President – Stevie Brinkerhoff

Treasurer—Brenda Lauer

Secretary—Ruth Anne Prentice

The new officers will go to the bank in January to meet with a Customer Service Manager for the purpose of changing the names on the accounts to reflect the people who are currently holding office. Pat Crane's name will be removed from the Friend's accounts at Fifth Third Bank.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:35 PM.

Respectfully submitted

Ruth Anne Prentice, Secretary
